They talked to me a lot, treated me to their home and showed me many of the surrounding places. Thanks to them, I had various and better experiences in Powell. ”

The teachers, classmates and other staff are all very nice to international students. There’s less than 10 students in one ESL class which allows us to get more attention from the teachers. ”

“ Easily one of the top 10 schools in the U.S. for photography, Northwest has shaped me and made me the photographer I am today. I am grateful for the delightful two years I spent there in an idyllic basin of northwest Wyoming. It gave me a solid foundation on which I could build and grow and create a style of my own, forging life-long friendships, and setting my path for a successful and gratifying career. As a young student at the time, I could see that beyond the technique, it was a perspective that the professors showed us which would allow us to set impossible goals and then achieve them. ”

Explore

At Northwest, there's as much to learn outside the classroom as in the classroom.

- Experience nature through camping, hiking, rafting, snowshoeing, rock climbing ... or travel to a city for concerts, restaurants, shopping malls, museums and theatre
- Travel with a field studies class to Europe, Asia, Latin America and throughout the United States
- Go to the Recreation Equipment Co-op for free rentals on sports and outdoor gear – from tennis rackets to kayaks and tents
- Put your studies to work through an internship on- or off-campus

Include fun in your learning!

“ The positive experiences I made with the students, teachers, college staff and community members are numerous. The small class sizes, the individual attention and the variety of classes provided me with an excellent opportunity to study, be successful and challenge myself in a non-native language. I would recommend NWC to everybody wishing to experience some time in the USA and enjoy the friendly people, the great outdoors and the overall wonderful journey. ”
